NOTICE OF ANNEXATION

Dear Property Owner:

The purpose of this letter is to notify you that some or all of your property is included in a proposed annexation by the City of Cleburne. The areas proposed for annexation are highlighted in on the map included with this letter. Johnson County Appraisal District records show that you own property in one or more of the highlighted areas. Under state law, the City may annex the area after following certain notice and hearing procedures contained in Chapter 43 of the Texas Local Government Code.

State law establishes the procedure the City must follow to annex the area. City staff will prepare a proposed service plan describing the services the City will provide in the area upon annexation. The City Council will then hold public hearings to discuss the annexation and the service plan. The hearings will be held at Cleburne City Hall, 10 North Robinson, Cleburne, Texas, at 5:30 on October 23, 2012 and 5:30 on October 30, 2012.

If you have questions concerning the annexation process, we encourage you to contact Cynthia Chapman, City of Cleburne Legal Secretary at 817-645-0907. All other questions or comments should be reserved for the public meetings.

Sincerely,

David Esquivel, PE
Assistant City Manager

The areas proposed for annexation are highlighted in on the map included with this letter. Johnson County Appraisal District records show that you own property in one or more of the highlighted areas. Under state law, the City may annex the area after following certain notice and hearing procedures contained in Chapter 43 of the Texas Local Government Code.

State law establishes the procedure the City must follow to annex the area. City staff will prepare a proposed service plan describing the services the City will provide in the area upon annexation. The City Council will then hold public hearings to discuss the annexation and the service plan. The hearings will be held at Cleburne City Hall, 10 North Robinson, Cleburne, Texas, at 5:30 on October 23, 2012 and 5:30 on October 30, 2012.

If you have questions concerning the annexation process, we encourage you to contact Cynthia Chapman, City of Cleburne Legal Secretary at 817-645-0907. All other questions or comments should be reserved for the public meetings.

Sincerely,

David Esquivel, PE

NOTICE OF ANNEXATION

Dear Property Owner:

The purpose of this letter is to notify you that some or all of your property is included in a proposed annexation by the City of Cleburne. The areas proposed for annexation are highlighted in on the map included with this letter. Johnson County Appraisal District records show that you own property in one or more of the highlighted areas. Under state law, the City may annex the area after following certain notice and hearing procedures contained in Chapter 43 of the Texas Local Government Code.

State law establishes the procedure the City must follow to annex the area. City staff will prepare a proposed service plan describing the services the City will provide in the area upon annexation. The City Council will then hold public hearings to discuss the annexation and the service plan. The hearings will be held at Cleburne City Hall, 10 North Robinson, Cleburne, Texas, at 5:30 on October 23, 2012 and 5:30 on October 30, 2012.

If you have questions concerning the annexation process, we encourage you to contact Cynthia Chapman, City of Cleburne Legal Secretary at 817-645-0907. All other questions or comments should be reserved for the public meetings.

Sincerely,

David Esquivel, PE

NOTICE OF ANNEXATION

Dear Property Owner:

The purpose of this letter is to notify you that some or all of your property is included in a proposed annexation by the City of Cleburne. The areas proposed for annexation are highlighted in on the map included with this letter. Johnson County Appraisal District records show that you own property in one or more of the highlighted areas. Under state law, the City may annex the area after following certain notice and hearing procedures contained in Chapter 43 of the Texas Local Government Code.

State law establishes the procedure the City must follow to annex the area. City staff will prepare a proposed service plan describing the services the City will provide in the area upon annexation. The City Council will then hold public hearings to discuss the annexation and the service plan. The hearings will be held at Cleburne City Hall, 10 North Robinson, Cleburne, Texas, at 5:30 on October 23, 2012 and 5:30 on October 30, 2012.

If you have questions concerning the annexation process, we encourage you to contact Cynthia Chapman, City of Cleburne Legal Secretary at 817-645-0907. All other questions or comments should be reserved for the public meetings.

Sincerely,

David Esquivel, PE

The areas proposed for annexation are highlighted in on the map included with this letter. Johnson County Appraisal District records show that you own property in one or more of the highlighted areas. Under state law, the City may annex the area after following certain notice and hearing procedures contained in Chapter 43 of the Texas Local Government Code.

State law establishes the procedure the City must follow to annex the area. City staff will prepare a proposed service plan describing the services the City will provide in the area upon annexation. The City Council will then hold public hearings to discuss the annexation and the service plan. The hearings will be held at Cleburne City Hall, 10 North Robinson, Cleburne, Texas, at 5:30 on October 23, 2012 and 5:30 on October 30, 2012.

If you have questions concerning the annexation process, we encourage you to contact Cynthia Chapman, City of Cleburne Legal Secretary at 817-645-0907. All other questions or comments should be reserved for the public meetings.

Sincerely,

David Esquivel, PE

NOTICE OF ANNEXATION

Dear Property Owner:

The purpose of this letter is to notify you that some or all of your property is included in a proposed annexation by the City of Cleburne. The areas proposed for annexation are highlighted in on the map included with this letter. Johnson County Appraisal District records show that you own property in one or more of the highlighted areas. Under state law, the City may annex the area after following certain notice and hearing procedures contained in Chapter 43 of the Texas Local Government Code.

State law establishes the procedure the City must follow to annex the area. City staff will prepare a proposed service plan describing the services the City will provide in the area upon annexation. The City Council will then hold public hearings to discuss the annexation and the service plan. The hearings will be held at Cleburne City Hall, 10 North Robinson, Cleburne, Texas, at 5:30 on October 23, 2012 and 5:30 on October 30, 2012.

If you have questions concerning the annexation process, we encourage you to contact Cynthia Chapman, City of Cleburne Legal Secretary at 817-645-0907. All other questions or comments should be reserved for the public meetings.

Sincerely,

David Esquivel, PE

The purpose of this letter is to notify you that some or all of your property is included in a proposed annexation by the City of Cleburne. The areas proposed for annexation are highlighted in on the map included with this letter. Johnson County Appraisal District records show that you own property in one or more of the highlighted areas. Under state law, the City may annex the area after following certain notice and hearing procedures contained in Chapter 43 of the Texas Local Government Code.

State law establishes the procedure the City must follow to annex the area. City staff will prepare a proposed service plan describing the services the City will provide in the area upon annexation. The City Council will then hold public hearings to discuss the annexation and the service plan. The hearings will be held at Cleburne City Hall, 10 North Robinson, Cleburne, Texas, at 5:30 on October 23, 2012 and 5:30 on October 30, 2012.

If you have questions concerning the annexation process, we encourage you to contact Cynthia Chapman, City of Cleburne Legal Secretary at 817-645-0907. All other questions or comments should be reserved for the public meetings.

Sincerely,

David Esquivel, PE
